FOREWORD

It has now been nearly forty years since the author began his research into the history of the Heck family. During this time he has gathered a weighty mass of documentary material; so vast indeed, that it would be out of the question to publish it in its entirety. The time has come when it is believed that this material should be shortened and presented in a more concise and readable form. I have used the loose leaf method of binding because each branch can easily insert an extra page or two at the proper place and thus continue the genealogy on permanently. Perhaps my method of outlining the descent is novel; at least I have not seen it used before. As will be observed, the entire descent of any one individual is presented in its entirety before that of another is begun. The large Roman numeral I. represents the second generation; the capital letter A. is used for the third; the fourth generation is indicated by the arabic numeral 1.; the small letter a. is used for the fifth; the arabic numeral 1. is repeated to indicate the sixth generation; while the small Roman numeral i. represents the seventh; and the eighth generation is indicated by aa. Some of the family lines are far from complete; only a few are not fully documented and the sources for the descent in most instances are also mentioned. That there are some errors especially in dates is inevitable. It is to be hoped that they are at a minimum.

INTRODUCTION

"Then Thorstein looked at Haakon where he sate,
 Mute as a cloud amid the stormy hall,
 And said, 'O Skald, sing now an olden song
 Such as our fathers heard who led great lives;
 And, as the bravest on the shield is born
 Along the waving hosts that shout him king;
 So rode their thrones upon the thronging seas."
 James Russell Lowell

The name Heck is derived from the root form Hak which occurs in many different forms in the Scandinavian countries and in England and Germany. The earliest is Haken or Hakon the name of a famous family of Danish and Norwegian kings and nobles of the tenth and eleventh centuries, descendants of earls or jarls of a still earlier past whose deeds of valor have formed the basis of many tales and legends. Saxo Grammaticus who lived in the 12th century has given us the most authentic account of the exploits of this family in his great work, "Gesta Danorum" or "Historica Danica."

One branch of this family settled in England during the Danish Conquest and to this day there is a hamlet in the County of York, some miles south of Doncaster which retains the name Heck. Bardsley has given us 37 surnames which he believes can be traced back to the root Hak. The late king of Norway when he ascended the throne took the name Haakon VII. In his, "Native races of the Pacific Coast", Hubert Howe Bancroft mentions a Hake and Hekia, described as two Scots whom Leif had formerly received from the Norwegian king Olaf Tryggvason and who were very swift of foot. The account further states that they were put ashore before the others and thus may be regarded as the first white men to explore the North American Continent.

We find the name appearing as Hacke in the province of Schleswig-Holstein, the original home of the Angles. In the Archiv-Dokumente of Denmark for 1317-1323 the names of Detlef and Emmicke Hacke appear as representatives of an adelige (noble) family and is described as, "en holsteensk familie". The Coat of Arms of these Hackes consists of an azure field with a hound with a red collar, the crest consisting of a similar figure, "Blatt Feldt et hvidt hundehoved med Hals med venstre Side, havende et rede Halsband." Another Coat of Arms consists of three fishes, one having the Motto, Nil Desperandum, "Never in Despair."

Among the earliest of the recorded name Heck is one Johan Von Heck, as he was permitted to style himself after the German manner of Knight-hood. He was awarded the following Coat of Arms at the time of the First Crusade in 1096 - "Shield quarterly-first and four red quarters; the second and third silver; and in the second and third three red clovers; helmet silver; surmounted by a gold coronet, and this by a red tower."

At the beginning of the 15th century representatives of the family were in both England and Germany. One branch came to Cologne about the year 1400, either domiciled there or came to attend the famous university. Between the years 1409 and 1465 more than a dozen took degrees there, some in law and others in medicine. Among these were George Hacke, Ludovicius Hacke, Walturus T. Haeck de Luydenscheide and Cornelius Hack. During the 16th century no one bearing the name is found registered at the University of Cologne.

GEORGE AND ANNA HACKE

About the year 1620 we find a physician living at Cologne by the name of George Hacke where he took a medical degree. This was the time when the people of Europe were looking to the New World as a place for permanent settlement. The precise year when Dr. George Hacke came to America is uncertain. His brother-in-law, Augustine Herrman was in New Netherlands as early as 1633. Either in New Amsterdam or in Holland George Hacke married Anna Verlett, a daughter of Casper and Judith Verlett, an early settler of the Dutch colony at Good Hope (Hartford, Conn.). The name of Dr. Hacke first appears in the records of Virginia as a signer of the Northampton Engagement. On July 1, 1653, he received a patent of 400 acres in Northampton County. According to one record he was naturalized March 28, 1653, "Doer George Hacke, Practicenr in Physicke, a high German, both by parents and birth born in ye city of Collyne." That he did not receive his final papers until 1658 is implied in another account. Apparently the Sepheryn Hack who was killed by the Indians, April 17, 1661, was his brother. Anna Hacke was engaged in the export of tobacco with her brother-in-law Augustine Herrman; and as such she appears to have been an exceedingly shrewd business woman. They were granted large tracts of land in what is now Cecil county, Maryland. Writing of him, Jennings Cropper Wise says, "one of the most highly respected men of Northampton County was Dr. George Nicholas Hacke, a native of Cologne."

They had two sons, George Nicholas and Peter and two daughters, Ann and Katherine. Nothing is known of the daughters. After her husband's death Anna Hack married a Mr. Bool of Virginia. George Nicholas was born at Accomac, Va. about 1651. He married Ann, daughter of Richard Wright. They had a son, Nicholas and a daughter. Nicholas married Elizabeth (Ball) May 16, 1717. Their son, Edward, we find at the College of William and Mary in 1761. The daughter married into the Moseley family and her son Edward Hack Moseley was Burgess from Princess Ann County from 1761 to 1769.

Peter, the second son was born in Accomac about 1653. He became a large landowner in Cecil Co., Md. By 1690 he was back in Virginia as Ranger of the Northern Neck. In 1696 he was elected from Northumberland Co. to the House of Burgesses where he served until 1712. The same year he was a vestryman of St. Stephens Parish. He married a granddaughter of John Mattron, her first name being Mary Ann who died in 1715. Peter Hack held the rank of Colonel and he was sheriff of his county from 1716 to 1717. He was living as late as 1721. Peter and Mary Ann Hack had two sons and one daughter, Ann born in 1697 and became the second wife of Colonel Conway. She died August 28, 1747, "greatly lamented, being a gentlewoman of amiable character." The son John Hack married Elizabeth Kirk; his will being dated Nov. 2, 1742, and proved in Northumberland County, Va. May 5, 1747. His legatees were his wife and his two nephews, Peter Spencer Hack and Tunstall Hack.

Colonel Peter Hack's other son was named Peter, probably the elder. About 1725 he married Ann Custis, daughter of Henry Custis of Mt. Custis, Va. and Ann Kendall. They had three sons, Peter Spencer, Tunstall and Peter born in 1754. Tunstall Hack married his cousin, Hannah Conway, daughter of Col. Edwin and Ann Conway of Lancaster Co. His will was proved Sept. 12, 1757. Peter Spencer married Sarah Ann Garlington, the daughter of Christopher who on May 5, 1724, married Elizabeth Conway another daughter of Col. Edwin and Ann Ball who was a half sister of Mary, the mother of Washington. Peter Spencer left one son Peter John Tunstall and two daughters, Mary Elizabeth who married the fourth John Graham; and Ann who married John Gordon.

The principal sources for the lives of George and Anna Hack are Va. Mag. of Hist. and Biog. Vol V. p. 257; Tyler's Quart. Hist. Mag. Vol. 7; William and Mary Col. Quart. Vol. III. series 2; Journal of the House of Burgesses; J. C. Wise, "Ye Kingdome of Accawmacke, page 71 and Hayden's Virginia Genealogies, p. 243.

In the ship "Transport" there came from Gravesend, England, the following persons: Oliver Van Heck, aged 35, Katherine Van Heck, his wife aged 34, and Peter Van Heck, aged 7. They arrived in 1635 and settled in Lower Norfolk Co. Nothing further of them is known nor do we know if they were in any way related to Dr. George Hacke and the Hecks of Maryland. (Hotton, J. C. The following heads of families by the name Heck were living in Maryland according to the first census of the United States, 1790.

Frederick County, Andrew, Daniel (one son and four daughters), George, John, Margaret (widow of Balser); and in Washington County, Peter.
 In Virginia, Amherst County, William Heck.

"Hack, John, Pr. Capt. Ware's Co. Oct. 9, 1757. Dis. Dec. 30, 1758."
 (Maryland Hist. Mag. Vol. X.) Possibly the Peter John Tunstall Hack above and also possible father of Daniel David Heck.
 Excerpt from Centennial Biog. Record of Dayton and Montgomery County, 1897, pa. 1128. David Heck of Virginia had the following children:
 Daniel, Christina, Elizabeth, Jacob, David and two others.

Daniel David Heck (Hack, Heack) was born about the year 1760 in Maryland, presumably in Frederick Co. The earliest recorded mention of his name is in the Journal of the Committee of Observation of Frederick Co. (Vol. 11, Md. Hist. Mag.) in a "list of associates returned," from Sept. 12, 1775, to Oct. 24, 1776. According to the Adjutant General's Office Daniel Heck served in the American War for Independence in the Second Company commanded by Captain Clagit of the 5th Maryland Regiment, during 1781. The Maryland Archives state that when he was inducted into military service, his name is given as Hack; but when he was discharged his name is recorded as Daniel Heck. Prior to 1793 he moved to Rockbridge County, Virginia, where he goes under the name David. He and John Heck (Hick) who may have been a brother or other close relative bought 78 acres of land on Cedar Creek (the stream that runs under Natural Bridge) in Rockbridge County from Henry and Modelena Zollman. (Deed Bk. C. Ins. 22) and on Feb. 3, 1794, the two bought 40 acres of land in the same locality from John Paul. John Hack and Catherine, his wife, and David Heck sold 96 acres of this land on April 1, 1805 to Matthias Ripley. (Deed B. E. Ins. 374.)

Note: Because of the resemblance of the signature of John Hack's name on the above deed and the signature of the John Heck of Jefferson Twp. Montgomery Co. Ohio, on his will probated in 1810 it is conjectured that it was the same person. Daniel David Heck may have also served in the War of 1812 from Botetourt County. He is believed to have died about 1835.

Daniel David Heck was thrice married. His first wife was Elizabeth McClean, July 1, 1783, presumably a descendant of William McLean, who came from Scotland in 1733 settling in the southern part of Pennsylvania. By her he had one son, David, the founder of the Ohio branch of the family.

His second wife was Susanna, the daughter of Adam Zollman, presumably from the province of Limberg, Holland, coming to the Port of Philadelphia from Amsterdam Oct. 23, 1754. By her he had the following children Daniel, Jacob, Christina, Elizabeth and Polly.

His third wife was Susan Guthrie whom he married Dec. 4, 1823. She was probably the daughter of Robert Guthrie, a close neighbor. By her he had the following children: Lucinda, John Wesley, Martha Jane, William Henry, and James Preston. Many of these branches were later located in Henry County, Iowa.

Because of the reoccurrence of the spelling Hack (in fact the family of Daniel Heck of Springfield, Va. used the form Heack up until the time of the Civil War) it is conjectured that there was a close kinship to the family of Dr. George and Anna Hack.

It is likely that Daniel David Heck came from a large family. It is possible that the following were his brothers or cousins.

Peter Heck of Botetourt Co., Virginia, the father of the Peter Heck who settled in Bethel Twp., Clark County, Ohio.

Frederick Heck, also of Clark Co., Ohio. (More likely a nephew).

Jacob Heck of near Roanoke, Virginia. (More likely a nephew).

John Jacob Heck who settled in German Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio.

John Heck who settled in Jefferson Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio.

Balser Heck of Frederick Co., Maryland, who died in 1790, leaving his widow, Eve Margaret, a son Charles under 21 years of age; and two daughters, Margaret and Maria who were under 16 years of age.

David, the eldest child of Daniel David and Elizabeth Heck, was born in Frederick County, Md., Sept. 1, 1783, coming to Ohio first in 1811 to Dayton. The story is told that he came by way of the Great Kanawa Valley in West Virginia, riding a valuable gray horse, and that the owner of the southwest corner of Third and Main Streets in Dayton offered to trade him that land for the horse. But since horses were so valuable in those days the offer was turned down. He was a man of commanding stature and presence and he gained the title of "Indian Heck" not so much because he was a fighter but that he commanded great respect among those people. He returned to Virginia and in 1812 fought in the War against the British. The story is told that when he heard of the beginning of hostilities he was working with a chisel; whereupon he dropped it with instructions that it was not to be touched until he returned from the war. When he did come back he took up the chisel and continued his work. My father often told the story of how on one occasion he saw a British redcoat leaning against a rail fence. Quietly he slipped up behind the Englishman, grabbed hold of him and pitched him neatly over the fence, much to the chagrin and astonishment of his foe. The chisel is still preserved among his descendants, now in the possession of a great-great grandson, Jack M. Stahl of Dayton. He moved his family to his newly bought farm in the southwestern part of Madison Twp., Montgomery County arriving Sept. 27, 1818. He built a brick house thereon with home-made brick. On March 28, 1811, David was married to Magdalena, daughter of Jacob and Susannah Bookwalter Lane Spitler. Jacob's father, Johannes II had been massacred by the Indians at Swatara Gap, Lebanon County, Pa., May 16, 1757. His father, the first Johannes, born near Pennwihl, Canton Berne, Switzerland Dec. 7, 1690, came to America in 1736. David died on his farm Jan. 13, 1878. They were the parents of the following children: Samuel, John, David L., Anna, Elizabeth, Susannah, Mary Ann (Polly) and Andrew Jackson Heck.

Samuel M. Heck, the eldest child was born in Botetourt County, Virginia, July 13, 1813. At an early age he acquired an excellent education through private teachers and possessed one of the finest libraries of the county. By profession he was a surveyor but he held a certificate to teach school. His first farm was south of Johnsville which he later sold to buy a large farm south of Farmersville. He was a public spirited man and served on important jury trials, one called the Huffman will case involving a million and a half dollars. On Dec. 26, 1841, he was married to Catherine Warner, daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth formerly from Pennsylvania but who settled on a farm near Ellerton, Jefferson Twp., Montgomery County, Ohio. Samuel and Catherine are buried in the Germantown Cemetery; while David and Magdalena are buried in the western part of Bear Creek Cemetery on the Eaton Pike. For full biographies of the two see History of Montgomery County, Ohio, Beers ed. 1882, Book 3, p-79 and 343; Also article in the Dayton Daily News for Sept. 7, 1905.

John D. Heck, born Sept. 5, 1814, married Lydia Getter Sept. 7, 1841, and lived on a farm near Liberty in Jefferson Twp.

"David L. Heck the third son was born March 4, 1816, and married Susanna Shank, May 31, 1842. They lived on the home farm. Susannah was the daughter of Jacob Shank whose grandfather came to Ohio from Virginia. David L. was a Justice of Peace and Infirmary Director.

6. David Benton, b. July 22, 1853; m. Susan Adelia Bultz; d. Oct. 6, 1927
 He, like his father Samuel, was much of a scholar and very fond of good books. He moved to Darke County, Ohio in 1891 residing in and near arcanum. His last place of residence in Darke County was $\frac{1}{2}$ mile east of Abbotsville on a farm in Van Buren Twp. of which he was a Trustee. He later made his residence in Delphos, Ohio, but spent his winters with his son, Harry, at Columbus, Ga. Susan Adelia Bultz and Laura Puls, wife of James F. Heck were sisters but they spelled their names differently. Their father was Samuel Pulse and their mother was Ann Margaret Werley, the daughter of John Jacob Werley, b. July 26, 1783, who came to Carlisle, Pennsylvania at the age of 16, from Hermersberg, Rhenish Palatinate, Bavaria. His wife's name was Mary Phillips and his mother's name was Magdalena and he had at least one brother. Michel. Samuel Pulse was the son of Jacob Pulse and Polly Nouse, Jacob being the grandson of the Jacob Boltz who came to America via Philadelphia on the Ship St. Andrew, Sept. 23, 1752, settling near Lebanon, Pa. Samuel Pulse, the father, died when Susan Adelia was very young and she was brought up at Jacksonville, Ohio, by her father's cousin, Daniel Bultz and his wife Susannah, a sister of Ann Margaret. Both the Werleys and the Pulses are buried in Farmersville, Ohio, Cemetery. Susan Adelia was a lady of much wit and charm. Speaking of her, former Gov. James M. Cox to whom both she and Laura were related by marriage, said, "I believe that Susan Adelia Bultz had the best sense of humor of any woman I have ever known." Both James F. and David B. with their wives are interred in the Abbotsville Cemetery. Ada d. Nov. 19, 1915.

David Heck was a great admirer of the eminent but controversial United States Senator from Ohio of the above name who represented the state during the Civil War. It is believed that he was influential in having his grandson so named. Tradition has it that he ruled his family up almost to the hour of his death.
- D. Anna Heck, b. Oct. 30, 1817; m. Samuel Shank who was the brother of Susannah who married David L. They were the grandchildren of Henry Shank of Rockingham County, Va., and who came to Ohio in 1807. Anna was married Sept. 4, 1843 and died Nov. 6, 1862. Bur. in Bear Creek Cem.

She once told the author that when she was a girl of 16 she wished to attend a temperance meeting at New Lebanon. She said that this disturbed her grandfather (David Heck) and that he requested if not demanded that she must not wear any of their blue ribbons (apparently the insignia for the temperance society.)

Buried in northwest corner of Cem. on Fortney Rd. west of Liberty, Ohio.

(This is the end of descent from Daniel David and Elizabeth McClean.)

Note: There is the possibility that the Anna Maria Heck, b. July 20, 1784, near Littleton, Adams County, Pa., was the daughter of above Daniel David and Elizabeth McClean Heck. Nothing further is known of her.

DESCENT FROM DANIEL DAVID AND SUSANNAH ZOLLMAN HECK

II. Daniel Heck (Heack), b. Oct. 7, 1786 in Frederick Co., Md.; m. Oct. 15, 1812 Nancy Calhoun. He died May 1, 1862. Served in the War of 1812.
Bought several lots on the site of Springfield, Virginia, 2½ miles south of Natural Bridge, Rockbridge County, where until a few years ago his descendants lived in the house now around 175 years old. Daniel ran a fleet of boats from Buchanan on the James River to Richmond, carrying tobacco, meat and other commodities. He also operated a wagon factory making wagons that were used in the California gold rush. The burial place of many members of this family at Highbridge Presbyterian Church just north of farm.

F. Tilford Barclay, b. June 7, 1823; m. Esteline Boyd; d. Dec. 15, 1890

A granddaughter, Mrs. Estelle Wade, of Lexington, Va., tells an interesting story of how he came by his name. It seems that it was customary in those days and in that locale not to name children until they were of fairly good size. One day a man asked the young boy what his name was and the lad replied that he had none. Whereupon the man said, "Go home and tell your mother that she is to call you Tilford Barclay."

1. Clara Heck, b.....; m. James Howard Heck (cousin) See C.

2. James Boyd, b.....; m. Emma Leake No issue.

3. Lille, b.....; d. without issue.

Miss Lillie presented an autographed Brady photograph of Robert E. Lee to the Lee Memorial Chapel, Lexington, Va. It is believed to have been Lee's last signature. There is a note to this effect attached to this photograph; and it was because of this that the author of this genealogy was able to get in touch with Daniel Heck's family. When he is company with Ohmer Jackson visited the family it was the first time in nearly 75 years that the two branches had held contact. Mrs. Wade tells very interesting anecdotes about her aunts, Lillie and Clara. She also has in her home one of those distorting mirrors that belonged to Tilford Barclay.

1. John Heck McClelland, b. Aug. 22, 1869; m. Harriet Finley Brown

He was the historian for Rockbridge County, Va., and contributed many articles for the Lexington papers. He was also the historian for his branch of the family. A lively conversationalist he had a large fund of anecdotes for places and people. He lived in the old home place on the site of Springfield, Va. See Rockbridge County News, Lexington, Va., Dec. 13, 1951, and the same publication Dec. 4, 1952, which is a reprint of an article published in Springfield, Ohio News Sun Nov. 23, 1952 regarding the name, Springfield, Ohio. John McClelland was also a cabinet maker of rare ability and the old house was filled with beautiful works of art from his hand. Mrs. Alma Brown of Redlands, Calif., has many interesting stories to tell of him. He died July 27, 1953. It is said that three presidents sat before the fireplace in the old Heck homestead; Andrew Jackson, James K. Polk and Martin Van Buren. Also it is said that when a boy Andrew Johnson and his mother stopped at the house.

K. Elizabeth, d. Oct. 13, 1832; aged 9 years, 9 months, 28 days.

L. Lavina, b. Aug. 3, 1841

In a letter dated June 26, 1956, Prof. Walter C. McNelly of Miami Univ. states that a Geo. Heeter was his grandfather; and that Sarah who married Martin Heckathorne was his great aunt. They had at least two sons, Geo. and Daniel Heckathorne who had a son, Sylvester (a daughter Virginia) and Pearl who married Philip Goeler (N. Manchester, Ind.) This seems to indicate that Prof. McNelly is a grandson of Geo. and Anna Millikin Heeter. He is related to the Orville Baker family of Englewood, Ohio.

VI. Polly, b....; m. Oct. 10, 1827 Coleman Leff (Self) of whom nothing is known.

(End of descent from Daniel David Heck)

Notes on miscellaneous branches of the Heck family.

In a letter dated Nov. 12, 1952, Dana H. Heck of Damascus, Va., writes that he is the son of Charles and Mary Ann Snyder Heck of Johnson County, Tenn.; that his grandparents lived there also and that he believes his forbearers to be of Dutch descent and that they settled in Pa. He has a brother James M. Heck of Spokane, Wash.; and a sister Mrs. C. A. Harman.

Geo. H. Heck, b. Jan. 4, 1870 (son of Wm. Robt. and Augusta Bothe Hecke) in Hamburg, Germany. Came to America in 1891; m. Elizabeth Walsh.

THE HECK FAMILY OF CLARK COUNTY, OHIO

A Peter Heck of Washington County, Maryland, made a will July 28, 1795 and was probated Feb. 16, 1799 (Book A-405). It mentions only his wife, Catherine who was made executrix. There is the possibility that this was the Peter John Tunstall Hack and the John Hack who served during the French and Indian War in a Frederick County, Maryland Co.

There is a Peter Heck listed in the first census of Maryland for 1790, Washington County, as the father of two sons over 16 and a daughter.
A Peter Heck bought land in Botetourt County, Va., in 1806 and in 1809 and in the same county a Peter Heck and a Peter Heck, Jr. are on a list of taxables for 1801. Probably Peter Heck, Sr. was twice married, at least a marriage record gives him marrying Sarah Flack Oct. 17, 1798, in Botetourt County, Va. It is believed that he was a brother of Daniel David Heck. The following outline was composed from the Clark County Ohio Court records, Hist. of Clark Co. (1881) p. 716 and from Bible records in the possession of Mrs. David Firm Heck of Chicago. See also the author's article in Springfield, Ohio News Sun for Nov. 23, 1952.

Peter Heck, Sr. is believed to have had the following children, Peter Jr., Jacob, Polly, Frederick, Elizabeth and Susannah.

- I. Peter, Jr., b.....; m. (1) Mary Hoofauger, widow of Jacob, Dec. 4, 1811. He settled in Sec. 22, Bethel Twp., Clark County, where subsequently he bought large tracts of land. The deed records his name Haeck. He died about Oct. 1857 and probably buried in the old Heck Cem. east of New Carlisle, Ohio.

THE JOHN HECK FAMILY OF JEFFERSON TWP., MONTGOMERY CO., OHIO

John Heck, b.....came to Montgomery Co., Ohio, between the years 1804 and 1808 settling on a farm of 30 acres on the west side of Sec. 20 Jefferson Twp. He died early in 1810 leaving a will, signed Johannes Heck, giving no names either of wife or children. Because of a similarity between this signature and on a deed April 1, 1805, Rockbridge Co., Va., there is a possibility that he was a brother or other close relative of Daniel David Heck. The names of his children were obtained from Book C page 100 Chancery, Common Pleas Court of Montgomery County. They are as follows: Christina, Catherine, Elizabeth, John W., Susannah, Abraham, Hannah, Judith and Mary.

- I. Christina, b.....; m. William Shanefeldt; d. prior to 1833. They had the following children: Mary, William, Peter, Christina and Jacob. It is probable that they were minors at the death of their parents.
- II. Catherine, b.....; m. Daniel Shideler (or Shively) though she may have been married first to a Shively and then to a Shidler. There seems to have been two children, William and Harriet, given as Adam Shively's heirs.
- III. Elizabeth, b.....; m. Oct. 8, 1812 Peter Moyer
 - A. Phebe, m.....Pontius; B. Jeremiah; C. Henry; D. Sarah who married Geo. P. Loy and had two children, Geo. P. Jr. and Elizabeth (d. young)
 - E. Eli; F. William who had six children: Perry H., Diana who married a Leshner, Sarah M. who married a Crockett, Peter, Henry B. and Christina, and 4 more whose names have not been ascertained, dying before 1875.
- IV. John W., b.....; m. March 4, 1824 Frances Miller; d. May.....1878. Lived first in Jefferson Twp., later moving to Perry Twp. Descent from Estate Set. Case #12011 (1878) Montgomery County, Ohio.
 - A. Lewis, b.....; m. (1) July 13, 1844 Barbara Noffsinger (?)

- VIII. Judith, b.....; m. Joseph Miller, Jan. 15, 1826
- IX. Mary, b.....; m. John Miller

Note: It is possible that this Mary Heck is the Polly Heck who is recorded as having married John Tryer, June 27, 1822. Tentatively she has been placed in the family of John Jacob Heck of German Twp. where her descent is shown. Possibly, too, she is the Mary Heck who married Isaac Shively, April 23, 1808.

DESCENT FROM JOHN JACOB HECK OF GERMAN TWP. MONTGOMERY CO., OHIO.

John Jacob Heck, b. in Virginia, Sept. 9, 1773; m. Margaret Wolf (born Aug. 26, 1774) daughter of Frederick Wolf a soldier of the American Rev. He came to Ohio between the years 1804 and 1827, settling southwest of Germantown near Brown's Run, although the deed records do not say that he owned land there. He appears to have lived in Maryland before coming to Ohio. It appears that he was acquainted with one Daniel Heck who may have been David Heck of Madison Twp., and there is the possibility that he was a brother or other close relative of Daniel David Heck. John Jacob died in Oct. 1827 and left the following children: Sarah, Catherine, Jonas, Margaret, Daniel and Phebe and also perhaps three more, Mary, Rachel and Catherine.

The following outline has been compiled from various Court records of Darke, Montgomery and Preble counties; Hist. and Biog. Cyl. of Butler County, Ohio, and from information furnished by Mr. Frazer Wilson formerly from Greenville, Ohio, who is a great-great-grandson of John Jacob.

- I. Sarah, b. June 20, 1802; m. July 10, 1827 Richard Taylor
- II. Catherine, b. Sept. 27, 1803; m. Sept. 1823 James Alexander Biven Frazer, who was the son of William Frazer a Scotchman and Elizabeth Ducker. He operated a mill near Baltimore, Md., later coming to Ohio where he met the two Hecks mentioned above. Later he operated a mill on Twin Creek near Lewisburg, Ohio. In an article in the Lewisburg Leader for Sept. 16, 1954, Frazer E. Wilson has described this old mill.
 - A. Elizabeth Ducker Heck, b. Aug. 24, 1824; m. Oct. 1, 1843 George Niswonger
 1. Sarah Catherine, b. June 23, 1847; m. Augustus N. Wilson; d. Apr. 7, 1914
 - a. Gertrude; m. William H. Mann
 1. Katherine
 - b. Osborn; m. Lillian Harrison, has one son, Harrison Augustus
 - c. Frazer E., b. Sept. 10, 1871; m. Pearle Larimer (Kettering, Ohio)
Frazer Wilson is the author of Hist. of Darke County, Ohio, a Life of Gen. Arthur St. Clair and of many other works of a historical nature of western Ohio. During 1929-1930 he was a member of the House of Representatives of the Ohio Legislature. He was a man of great charm of personality, of a high culture and deep learning and had many interesting stories to tell of the early days of the Ohio west. He passed away in 1958.

DESCENT FROM PETER AND HANNAH HECK JEFFERSON TWP.

This Peter Heck may very well be the eldest son of Daniel Heck who settled in Bracken County, Kentucky, near Augusta in 1798 as his name disappears from the records of that county after 1803. He may also have been the Peter Heck who on April 12, 1789 married Hannah Waeschbach (Records of Lutheran Church, Frederick, Md.) At least we know that his wife's name was Hannah from the deed of sale for land in Sec. 27, Jefferson Twp., Montgomery County, Ohio in 1821, when they went to Shelby County, Indiana, settling probably in Jackson Twp. southwest of Shelbyville. This descent compiled from the Public Records of Darke and Montgomery Counties, Ohio, from those of Shelby County, Indiana, and information supplied by Calvin Heck of Delphi, Indiana. He was in Jefferson Twp. as early as 1811. It is not known if he was in any way related to Daniel David Heck, although an early entry in the Kentucky records gives the name Hack. They had the following children: Jacob, John, Joseph, Lewis, Daniel, Elizabeth and Mary.

- I. Jacob, b.....Emigrated to Indiana 1825; m. Mary.....; d....1861

- Note: Jan. 12, 1882 Martin Heck appointed guardian of William Heck, James O. Heck and Maud Heck, minors. Mother Julia A. dec'd.
 Jennie Heck, Gerdie O. Heck, Purley Heck, Allie Heck mentioned in Estate Entry Claims for Mar. 3, 1936, Fountaintown, Ind. Other Hecks mentioned in Shelby County Probate Order Bks, Edna, Raymond, Etta, Elwin, Hubert, Hershell, Virginia.

- III. Joseph Heck, b. in Maryland.....1800; m. Mary Grow daughter of Jacob Grow who was a neighbor in Jefferson Twp., Montgomery Co., Ohio. Believed to have moved to Liberty (German) Twp., Darke Co., Ohio a little before 1836 for in that year he was a member of the Christian Church, Palestine, Ohio; died in Darke County Dec.30,1876. There is a vague tradition in the family of David Benton Heck of Arcanum that Joseph was related. Joseph was married in Montgomery Co. Sept. 28, 1820.
- A. Joseph, b.....; m. Polly Porter, July 12, 1839
 1. Joseph S., b.....; m. Malinda Grow Feb. 23,1862

THE JOHN HECK FAMILY OF CHAMPAIGN COUNTY, OHIO

Washington Co., Maryland, a Peter Heck is listed as head of a family in the first Census of the United States, 1790; 2 sons, 1 daughter.

A Peter Heck of above county made a will in 1795 mentioning only his wife Catherine.

Peter Heck Setl. of Estate (Bond Book F. p.606, Jan. 1855, Washington Co., Md.) Signed by James Heck, John Heck and Joseph Protzman.

According to the Marriage Records of Frederick County, Md., John Heck was married to Matilda Trotzman, Dec.19,1832. This most likely refers to Matilda Pretzman wife of John of Champaign Co., Ohio, and there is the possibility that he was the son of the Peter Heck who died in Washington County, Md. in 1855.

The following outline was composed from information from the History of Champaign County, Ohio, 1881; page 752 and from information supplied by Miss Grace Fern Heck of Springfield, Ohio, and from Mrs. Ira Hance, Englewood, O.

- I. John Heck and his wife Matilda Pretzman, both native of Maryland came to Johnson Twp. in 1836 settling near Millerstown. He died in his 72nd year before his wife. They were the parents of the following children:-Thomas, Mary Elizabeth, Geo. Washington, John, Sarah, Matilda, Joan, Elisha and Samuel.

Note: Don Heck of Cincinnati, Ohio from the Bracken County Ky. line of Hecks once lived in West Liberty, Ohio, where he knew certain members of the above line; and he feels that there is some relationship between them and his family. Mrs. Ira Hance, great granddaughter of John and Matilda has a homespun spread made at St. Paris, Ohio, in 1851, on which Matilda's name is given as Margaret Heck.

THE DANIEL HECK FAMILY OF BRACKEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY

From Strassburger's List of Emigrants to Port of Philadelphia from 1727 to 1808 Daniel Hick (Johan Daniel Heck) in Ship Halifax, Oct.20,1754; and Danniell Heck in Ship Edinburg, Sept.14,1753, Frederick County, Md. First Census of the U. S., 1790, a Daniel Heck is mentioned as head of family (1 Son; 4 Daughters).

The following table of descent was composed from the Bracken County records and from information received from Mrs. Russell Pierce of Greencastle, Ind., and from Don Heck of Cincinnati. Both are descended from Daniel Heck. There is a mass of information in the Bracken County records but much is confusing. Parts of the outline, below may have to be revised.

Daniel Heck (Hack), b.....presumably in Pa., if not one of the emigrants mentioned above. He bought 275 acres of land on Bracken Creek a mile or two south of Augusta, Ky., April 11, 1798 from Joseph McMullen (Bk. C. p.46). In 1803 he appointed his sons Jacob and Peter, "my true efficient and lawful attorneys", to sell 200 acres of land in Pennsylvania granted to him by that state. He died in 1819 but the name of his wife is unknown nor is his burial place. He left the following children:-Peter, Jacob, Godfrey, George, John, Eve, Thomas, Elizabeth Borarn, Christina Cook and Catherine Moyer or Myers.

- I. Peter, b..... After the entry where he was appointed to go with his brother, Jacob, to sell land for his father, his name seems to disappear from the Bracken County records except where he is mentioned as one of Daniel's heirs in 1817. It is therefore believed that he went first to Clarmont Co., Ohio, and then on to Montgomery County where he settled in Jefferson Twp. where his descent is shown on page 27.
- II. Jacob, b.....; m. Elizabeth.....; d. Aug....1823.
Will probated Bracken County Aug.25,1823 (Bk. B. 329; Bk. D. p.245.)
They were the parents of the following children: William, Lewis Thomas, James, Nancy Hook, Polly Taylor, Christina Kenner (Kemmer) and Elizabeth Taylor. Nancy, Jacob, Thomas, Elizabeth and James were under the age of 21 at the death of their father.
 - A. William, b.....; m. possibly Phebe; d.....1838
 1. Phebe (?)
 - B. Christina, b.....; m. Oct.20,1814 Peter Kemmer
 - C. Polly, b.....; m. Joseph P. Taylor
 - D. Nancy, b. after 1802; m. Stephen Hook
 - E. Lewis Thomas, b. after 1802; m. Phebe Rybolt (Ribeau). Settled in Decatur County, Indiana, near Greensburg. He died in 1901 or 1902.
 1. John, d. in infancy
 2. William, b.....1860; m.....; d.....1908
 - a. Jean
 - b. Sibyl, b.....; m.....Linde
 3. Lewis Thomas, b. near Greensburg....1864; m.....; d.....1907
He was an editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer and wrote many articles and sketches about Cincinnati.
 - a. Don, b.....1897
Like his father he has been connected with the Cincinnati Enquirer for many years.
 - F. Jacob, b. after 1802
 - G. Elizabeth, b. after 1802; m. Walter P. Taylor
 - H. James, b. after 1802; m. Sept.11,1838 Amelia Ann Stroube; d...May, 1841
Book E. p.59 Bill of Sale gives purchasers, Elizabeth Heck, Amelia Ann, widow, Phoebe Heck, Wilfred (?) and Isaac Reynolds.

III. Godfrey Heck, b.....1777 in Maryland; m. Elizabeth Kemmer;
 He died in Fayette County, Ind., Nov. 30, 1858. He may have been the Godfrey Heck who was in the vicinity of Piqua, Ohio in 1813 (Dayton Ohio Republican for July 12, 1813.) List of unclaimed letters at the Piqua Post Office. According to Mrs. Russell Pierce, he and his wife were away from Bracken County about that time and they became home sick and returned home.
 They emigrated to Fayette County in 1822. Book C. p.264 Bracken County
 Sept.10,1803 has this entry, "John (Johanes) Simmerson doth bind his son George Simmerson who is aged three years and fifty days an apprentice to Godfrey Heck him faithfully to serve in all lawful commands from and after the date of these presents until he arrives at the age of eighteen.....
 Godfrey Heck agrees to instruct him in reading, writing and arithmetic."
 They were the parents of the following children: John, Daniel, Nicholas, and three daughters whose names are not known; but the names of their husbands are; and a son who married Mary Shaw.

- A. John, b.....1805; m. Hannah (?).....

The list of emigrants who came to America between the years 1727 to 1808 will be found on page 5.

Note to Bracken County, Kentucky branch: Don Heck of Cincinnati believes that Theodore Heck of that city and Clay Heck of Ripley, Ohio, come from this line of Hecks; and that another Theodore and his brother Gordon are more distantly related to him. There is a Lew M. Heck connected with the Cincinnati Times Star.

DESCENT FROM JACOB AND MARY HECK OF GUILFORD TWP., FRANKLIN CO., PA.

List 33 Yoost Heck, age 35; Eva Maria Heck, age 35; Johan Jacob Heck 6, Anna Catherine Heck, age 10 in the Brigantine, Richard and Elizabeth, Sept. 28, 1733 (via the Port of Philadelphia.)

The descendants of Jacob Heck of Guilford Twp., Franklin Co., Pa., two of whom are Dr. Maurice Heck of Miami, Fla. and Mrs. Carl Fleck of Mt. Holly, Pa. are of the opinion that their ancestor was descended from the above line. They have furnished the greater part of the material for their line.

III. Frederick Heck, b....prior to 1795 in Guilford Twp., Franklin County, Pa.

He is presumably the Frederick who is listed in the U. S. Census for 1790 as head of a family with one son less than 16 years old. In 1796 he emigrated to Athens County, Ohio, settling near the mouth of the Hocking River. He moved to Perry County, Ohio, in 1802 where he purchased a tract of land of 320 acres.

E. George, b.....in Cumberland County, Pa.; m. Martha Maish

Though not fully substantiated it seems likely that the above George Heck is the ancestor of the above Hancock County, Ohio Hecks. According to Anderson Cartwright Heck his father was born in Cumberland County, Pa.; moved to Hancock County in 1840; in 1866 this farm, two miles west of Findlay was sold to the county for an infirmary where George cared for the inmates one year. Later engaged in business. He was thrice married but the name of only his first wife is given. He was 3 days less than 84 years when he died.

DESCENT FROM PETER AND BARBARA HECK OF WESTMORELAND CO., PA.

Peter was born in 1765; m. Barbara. (1767-1841); d. 1843.

They emigrated to Columbiana County, Ohio, and settled near Unity where they are buried. They had the following children: Peter, Abraham, Jacob, Daniel, and William who is the grandfather of Dr. Stanton Heck of Salem, Ohio. They also had several daughters whose names are not known. Some of this line is said to have moved to Iowa. See Columbiana County, Ohio line of Hecks on page 32 who most probably were descended from the above Peter and Barbara.

Look Magazine, Sept. 29, 1959, carries an article about the three Heck Brothers, Adolf, Paul and Ben who operate the Korbel Ranch vineyards in the Sonoma Valley, California.

DESCENT FROM JOHANN HECK, BERKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

For the following outline the author is much indebted to Mr. W.A. Graham Clark of Washington, D.C., whose wife, Pearl Chadwick Heck Clark, is a descendant; and who has done extensive research on her line of the family.

DESCENT FROM PAUL AND BARBARA HECK, GRENVILLE COUNTY, ONTARIO

"Paul Heck married Barbara (Ruckle), born in Ballygary County Limerick, Ireland in 1734. They were descendants of a German family who emigrated to Ireland during the reign of William and Mary. Paul and Barbara came under the influence of the Wesleys. In 1760 they came in company with Philip Embury to New York. Under the influence of Barbara Heck Methodism found a firm rooting in American soil. The services are said to have been held in her house in New York until the chapel on Old John Street was completed about the year 1766. The Hecks moved first to New York and later to Upper Canada where they established Methodist societies, missions and churches. Barbara Heck died in Augusta in 1804." Withrow, W.H. Barbara Heck, a tale of early Methodism. For a view of the graves of Paul and Barbara, Samuel Heck and his wife see engraving pub. in the Ladies Repository, Cincinnati, for 1865.
